

Calling all Christian leaders in the workplace!

Are you a leader in the business, education or government sector here in Central Ohio? Do you have a heart for the Lord and a great desire to make a Kingdom difference that could help transform the City of Columbus? If you answered “yes” to both of these questions, we want to engage with you!

Why? Because we believe there is more for Columbus! Over the past couple of decades, we’ve seen first-hand the remarkable local work already underway by different expressions of the Church. We’re improving the quality of life in our city, not just through congregations and nonprofits but also through mature Christians stewarding roles in business, education, government, and more. However, if we can bring together and facilitate heightened collaboration among Christian workplace leaders, we believe we have an opportunity to accelerate the progress that is already at work in For Columbus. Imagine if all the congregational churches, non-profit organizations, and marketplace Christian leaders worked together as the entire body of Christ, each according to our callings, giftings, experiences, and spheres of influence. Imagine if we brought together our combined time, talent, treasures, and social networks to love, bless, and meet the needs of individuals, families, and neighborhoods in Central Ohio. Imagine the transformation. What if Columbus became the light of the world and the City that could not be hidden, as Jesus speaks about in Matt 5:14?

So what’s next? We are looking for a diverse group of Christian leaders to join us for a two-day workshop to help us build a robust strategy to cultivate next-level flourishing across Greater Columbus. It will be facilitated by Chuck Proudfit of At Work On Purpose and Ford Taylor of Transformational Leadership while featuring influential leaders, visionaries, and difference makers from different sectors of Columbus’ workplace. Come network and be inspired, and together, we can work on some foundational questions: What vision can we share for a better Columbus? How can we sustain collaboration over time? What are our next steps going forward?

Our hope is that you prayerfully consider joining us in making the greatest Kingdom impact of all time right here in the City of Columbus. We can do all things through Christ who strengthens us (Phil 4:13).

For our City,
Nick Nye, John Watkins, Trina Ryan, and Chuck Proudfit
